4. Now that the Civil Service Examination is over it is not clear what permanent arrangements are under contemplation for the two places of Chief Supts, as stated in the G.O. of 20.4.1915. The question of appointing some Account Probationers is said to be under consideration in Branch V, and it is not clear if the Comptroller's proposals are in anyway affected thereby.

5. Another point that may be mentioned in this connection is whether the passing of Govt of India Financial tests is necessary to make an officer eligible for confirmation as Chief Supt. G.O. no 71633 of 17.9.13 creating the post is not explicit on the point; please see para 2(b) of that order.

6. Subd for orders: In the ordinary course Mr K. Krishnaswami Iyengar would have been confirmed as Chief Supt and would continue as Asst Compt Sub-pro-tem. This will give him a permanent place in the Compt's office to which he can fall back upon if he is not confirmed as Asst Comptr

The Compt^r has not taken into consideration the case of Mr T. Subramiah, the senior Supt^d of the Compt^rs office who has been acting as Ass^t Compt^r during the absence of Mr Bistofanth Badami. He is by far senior to Mr Rangachar who is only an Ass^t Examiner in the Compt^rs office. Whether the Compt^r should be allowed to restrict his choice to Mr Rangachar for the mere accident that there is no other Graduate in his office senior to Mr Rangachar and whether Graduates in other offices who may be both senior and more competent than Mr Rangachar should not be selected for the place of Chief Superintendent, are also points for consideration. As officers from the General line of Ass^t Comm^rs selected as Ass^t Controllers have proved themselves to be very efficient account officers, it is highly probable that competent Graduates selected from other offices may prove themselves to be efficient Chief Superintendents. ~~It is proposed to be~~ Mr. ~~[illegible]~~

Submitted to His Highness.

The Gazetted staff of the Comptroller's Office includes two Chief Superintendents - one permanent and the other temporary. In Government Order No.Fl.3746-G.F 54-13-7 dated the 16th February 1914, Messrs N. Krishnaswami Rao, B.A., B.L., and K.R. Krishnaswamiengar, M.A., B.L., respectively, were appointed to these posts. Mr. Krishnaswami Rao has since been confirmed as Assistant Comptroller with effect from the 25th February 1916 and Mr. Krishnaswamiengar has been appointed sub protem - - Assistant Comptroller in one of the two temporary additional appointments sanctioned for inspection work and Railway Open Lines Accounts, and the two Chief Superintendents' places are at present held by Messrs S. Ramaswami Iyengar and M.A. Rangachar, respectively.

2. The Comptroller has now proposed that:-

(i) Mr. M.A. Rangachar, B.A., may be confirme as Chief Superintendent in place of Mr. Krishnaswami Rao, and

(ii) Mr. S. Ramaswamiengar continued as Chief Superintendent, sub protem vice Mr. Krishnaswamiengar.

3. Mr. Rangachar is a junior officer, his pay in his substantive appointment being only Rs.100/- while Mr. K.R. Krishnaswamiengar whom the Comptroller does not - propose for the present vacancy on the ground that he is eligible for confirmation in the higher appointment of Assistant Comptroller, holds his permanent appointment in the Revenue Department as Amildar of the 4th class and possesses superior general educational qualifications. He has been on a temporary footing in the Account Department for nearly three years with a lien in the Revenue Department and it is very desirable to provide him with a permanent appointment in the former Department at the earliest opportunity, instead of waiting till a permanent vacancy occurs among Assistant Commissioners. Besides neither Mr. Rangachar nor Mr. Ramaswamiengar can have any claim to confirmation as Chief Superintendents as even their temporary promotion to that grade has been explicitly stated to be purely of a provisional nature, in view of the contemplated entertainment of Probationers for the Account Department.

4. The matter was considered in Council and they are of opinion that, for the reasons set forth above, Mr. Krishnaswamiengar may be confirmed as Chief Superintendent in place of Mr. Krishnaswami Rao and that the existing temporary arrangements in regard to the two Chief Superintendents' posts may continue until the working of the Department is properly examined by the special officer proposed to be appointed for the purpos

5. The recommendation of the Council may be graciously approved.

SIR,

With reference to Government Notification No.G.12901/G.M. 134-15-115 of 16th March 1916 confirming Mr. N. Krishnaswami Rao as Assistant Commissioner, 5th Class, Schedule B, with effect from 25th February 1916, I have the honor to state that this confirmation has created a permanent vacancy in the appointment of Chief Superintendent held by Mr. Krishnaswami Rao prior to his confirmation as Assistant Commissioner.

2. The following are the three candidates whose claims have to be considered in this connection:-

1. Mr. K. R. Krishnaswami Iyengar M.A., B.L.,
2. ,, S. Ramaswami Iyengar
3. ,, M. A. Rangachar B.A.,

3. Mr. K. R. Krishnaswami Iyengar holds his substantive appointment as Amildar, 4th Class. He was appointed temporary Chief Superintendent in September 1913 and from 3rd March 1915 he has been appointed sub-pro-tem Assistant Comptroller in one of the two temporary additional appointments sanctioned by Government for Inspection Works and Railway Open Lines Account for the Public Works and Railway Branch of my office. appointment he is practically a full-fledged Assistant Commissioner, though he has been Gazetted only a sub-pro-tem Assistant Comptroller. Besides being fully qualified under the rules for the general line, Mr. krishnaswami Iyengar has passed the lower departmental examination for enrolled officers of the Government of India Finance Department and will sit for the higher examination to be held in May next. After he passed this examination he will be doubly eligible for confirmation as Assistant Commissioner and as he already stands second in the list of sub-pro-tem Assistant Commissioners, I shall have an early opportunity of recommending him for confirmation as an Assistant Comptroller which he eminently deserves at the hands of Government in virtue of his general attainments and examination qualifications and of the capacity for good work which he has displayed in my office. As in the case of almost all acting and sup-pro-tem Assistant Commissioners the promotion is from their substantive appointment as Amildars to the post of Assistant Commissioners, there is no need to consider the claims of Mr. K. R. Krishnaswami Iyengar in filling up the existing vacancy in an intermediate appointment which is primarily intended to be given as a prize for those that rise from the ministerial ranks of my office.

6) 3rd March 1915 Sub-pro-tem Chief Superintendent.

3. Mr. Ramaswami Iyengar has been appointed sub-pro-tem Chief Superintendent from 3rd March 1915 and holds the substantiv appointment of Head Accountant in the Public Works and Railway Branch of my office and draws Rs.200/-. His claims to confirmation as Chief Superintendent are seniority of service and the higher salary he draws as compared with Mr. Rangachar the other candidate. But as between Messrs. S. Ramaswami Iyengar and M.A. Rangachar it is in favor of Mr. Rangachar.

(1) that he possesses superior educational qualifications as he is a graduate,

(2) that he has been promoted to the Gazetted rank much earlier than Mr. S. Ramaswami Iyengar as he has acted several times as Assistant Comptroller as x

I have several times brought to the notice of Government the capacity for good and efficient work which Mr. Rangachar possesse and his fitness for a Gazetted charge in my office. During the periods he has acted as Assistant Comptroller he has been in charge of the Budget, Resource and Bank Sections of my office and for some time of the Gazetted Audit, Forest and Military Accounts Sections. As officer in immediate charge of the office establishments, contingencies and other general work relating to the office he generally acts as a personal Assistant to the Comptroller.

4. In consideration of all these circumstances I beg to propose that Mr. Rangachar may be confirmed as Chief Superintendent Vice Mr. N. Krishnaswami Rao confirmed as Assistant Comptroller and that Mr. S. Ramaswami Iyengar may be Gazetted temporary Chief Superintendent, Public Works and Railway Branch, Vice Mr. K. R.
